Pitch a Friend, Barcelona

Meet Quentin.

Quentin “Q” Patrouillard — French on paper, Barcelona by choice.

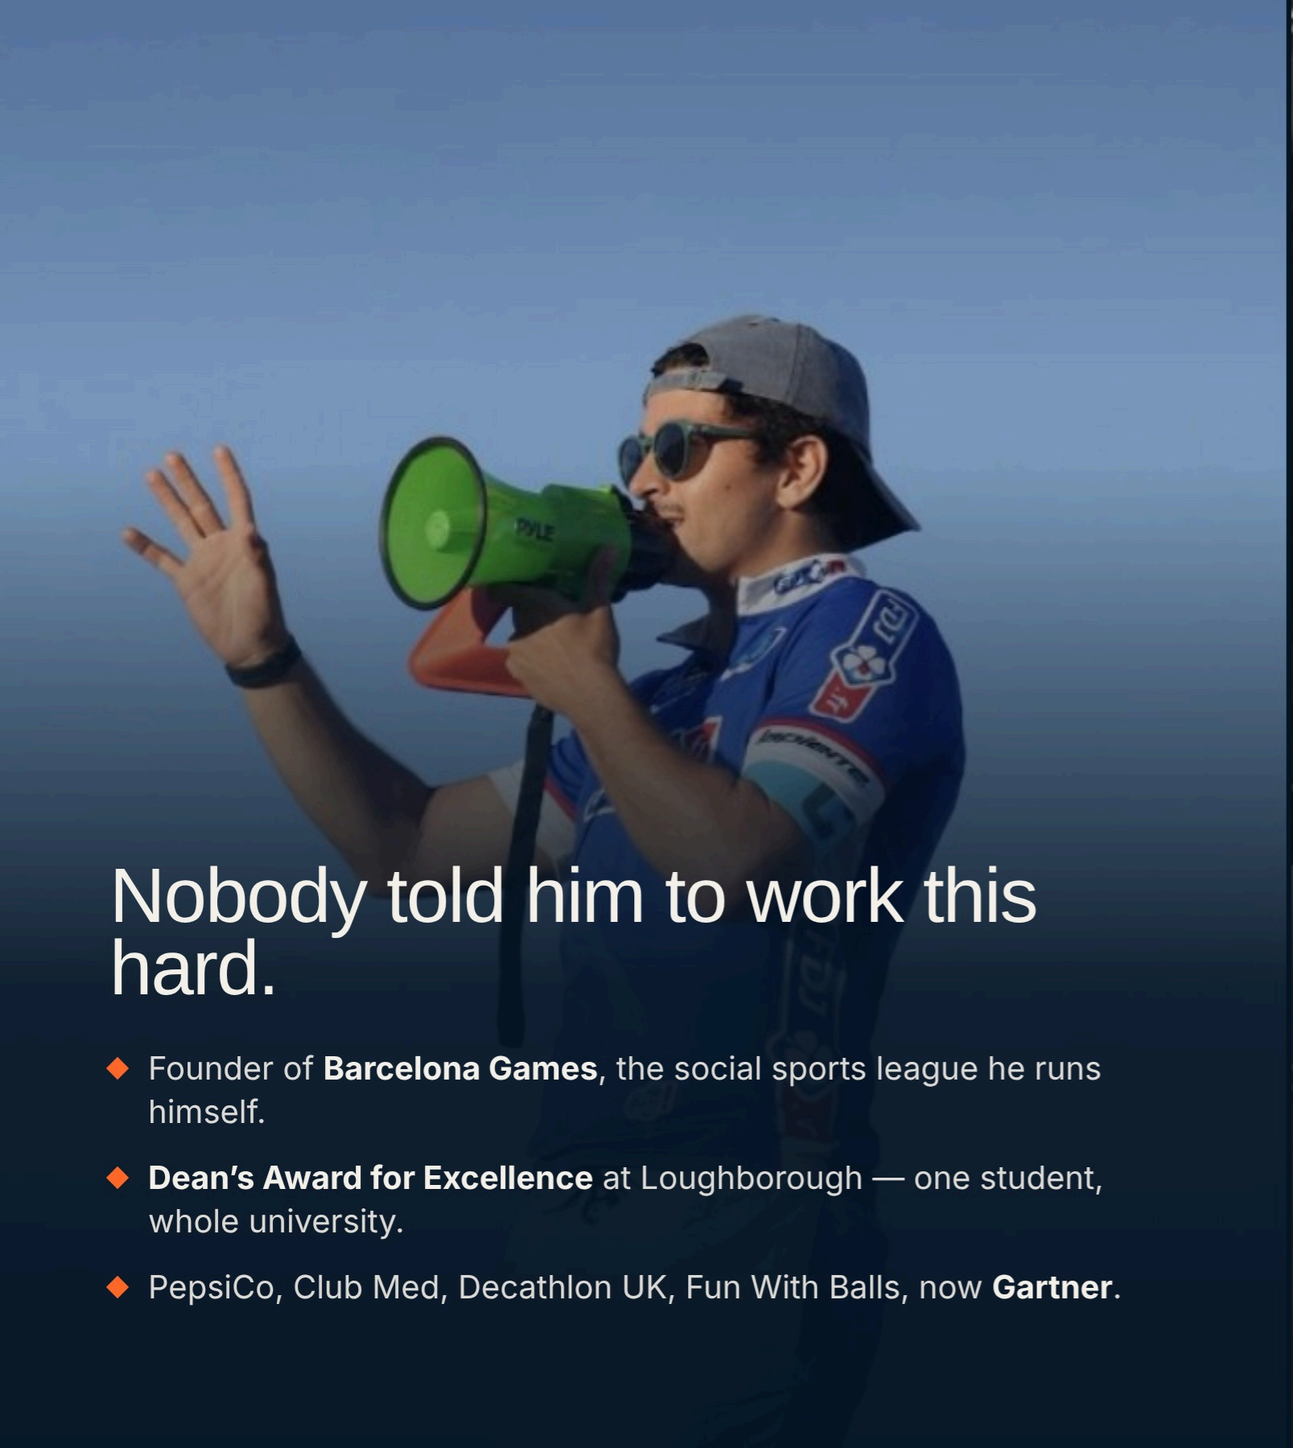

13

countries lived in, so far

Quentin does not “move abroad.” He collects homes, accents, friends and stories.

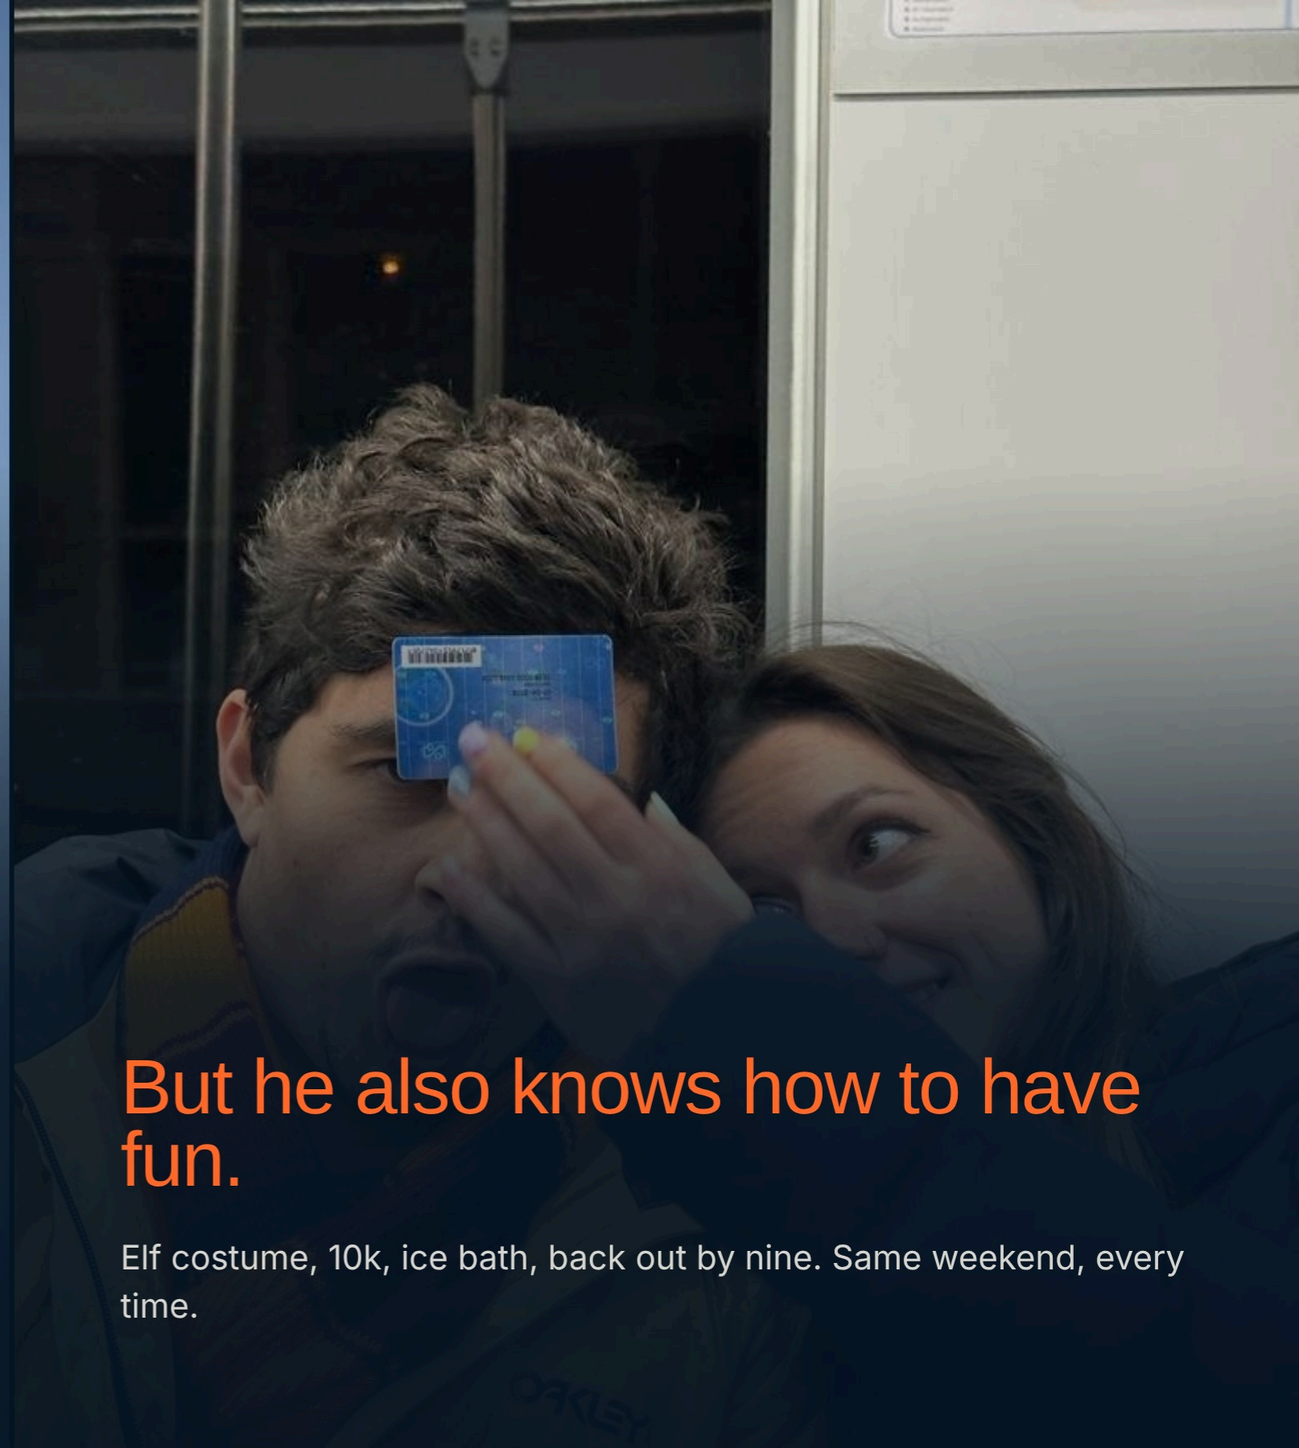

A new country roughly every three years since the day he was born.

Drop him anywhere and he’ll have a new group chat by sunset.

Nobody told him to work this hard.

- Founder of Barcelona Games, the social sports league he runs himself.
- Dean’s Award for Excellence at Loughborough — one student, whole university.
- PepsiCo, Club Med, Decathlon UK, Fun With Balls, now Gartner.

But he also knows how to have fun.

Elf costume, 10k, ice bath, back out by nine. Same weekend, every time.

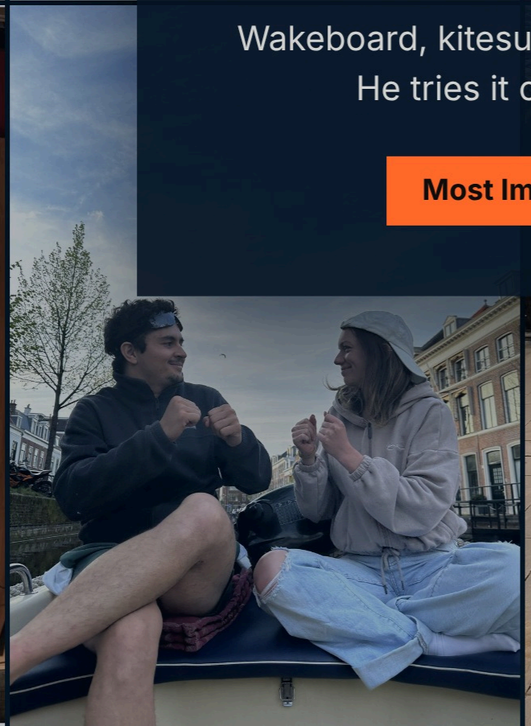

Do not play him at anything.

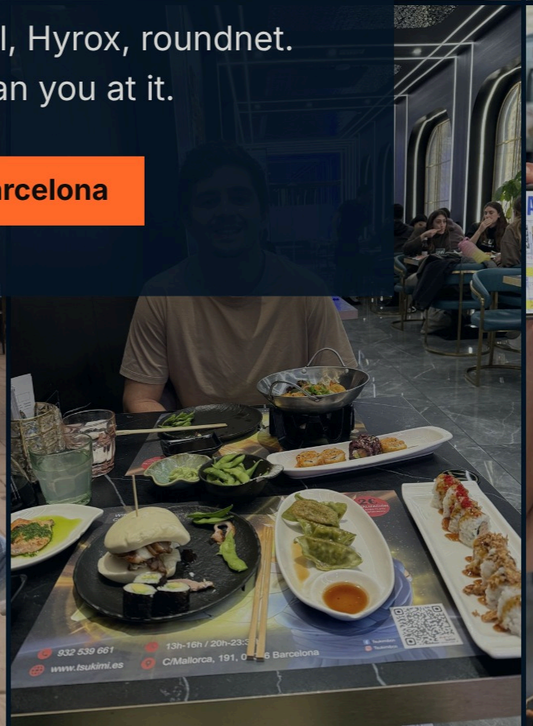

Wakeboard, kitesurf, snowboard, tennis, volleyball, Hyrox, roundnet.
He tries it once, then he’s quietly better than you at it.

Most Improved Player 2025 — Roundnet Barcelona

So I asked him what he actually wants out of tonight.

a) A friend.
b) A business partner.
c) A girlfriend.
d) A wife.
e) A fuck.

He said yes.

All of the above. Go find him — he's the one with the megaphone.
